

I have never been in China. The American public doesn't see it. They ship the shoes over here, and we are charged $66.99 all the way up to $150, but they pay Charles Barkley $20 million to make us all feel good through advertising when we buy those shoes. And there are very few shoe manufacturing companies, most of those were located in Congressman SANDERS' region of the country, very few shoe manufacturing companies left in this country.

So our people are really being put over a barrel. And you are right, prices do not go down, but corporate profits go up. Prices go up and our wages are coming down. And there are some pretty significant reasons for it.

Mr. KLINK. If the gentlewoman will yield, I had the distinct honor last year to chair a hearing in Wilkes-Barre, PA, it was a company by the name of Leslie Fay. This gets us back to NAFTA. Because you understand at the time when we are being asked to prop up the peso, the administration and others are taking a look at how can we expand this NAFTA agreement to Central America and to South America.

This hearing was because the Leslie Fay Company wanted to pull out thousands of jobs from Wilkes-Barre, garment workers, and they wanted to take these jobs down to Central America. And we had two blouses there. One was made in Central America, and it was a $50 blouse, and the workers were paid 35 cents an hour. The other one was made by Leslie Fay workers in Wilkes-Barre, PA, and it costs $48, and the workers were paid over minimum wage for certain. So there is no savings on this.

Ms. KAPTUR. I believe that our time has expired. I just wanted to thank the gentleman here, the gentleman from Vermont [Mr. SANDERS], the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. KLINK], and the gentleman from Oregon [Mr. DEFAZIO], for their leadership in speaking for up for the people of the United States, the people of the continent, and the people of the world, not just those investors in large multinational corporations who have access to the media and to our own financial centers.
